The President's message was a silent document.
It was silent on the negro at any rate.
What is to be the destiny of the negro?
The apologists are increasing.
The Washington Post is suffering with a severe attack of wind colic.
It will require two presidents, with the Post included, to make the negro accept such leadership as Kelly Miller and Booker T. Washington.
We have some words among the white people
Editor Fortune of the New York Age is a manly and fearless journalist
We need brave men and men of nerve.
Don't be a toady when you are right.
This is an ordeal through which the negro is passing.
There will be a bright day for the negro soon.
Be honest, true and manly.
What the colored race needs today is a Moses.
Is it best for the negro to be silent?
Be useful citizens and manly in your utterances.
Are the negroes cowards or are they manly?
Don't be alarmed, there will be a day of reckoning.
Speak the truth, be honest and sincere.
It is the coward who cannot speak the truth.
There are millions in this country who will need the help of the negro.
How did you like Editor Fortune's speech?
The Post as well as other papers need apologetic negro leadership.
There are breakers ahead.
Should a race be compromised because we don't want to insult our enemies?
Let us live in hope, the promise land will be reached some day.
Don't forget to express your honest convictions.
Think well of your neighbor, you may ask him a favor yet.
If you want a live paper, read THE BEE.
No one will regret the retirement of Secretary Bliss.
He will do all of his weeping to himself.
No one will weep because he leaves the Cabinet.
If one or two others will go, the country would be in a better condition.
It is the brave man who dares to express his honest convictions.
THE BEE takes the lead, and all others follow.
Send your advertisements to THE BEE. This paper will do you good.
Gray and Costly are running a first class house.
You should speak cordially when you know you are right.
No trimmer can succeed in anything.
A new city Postmaster will be appointed soon.
It will be well for the negro to be independent in politics.
It is not necessary for the colored man to be uneasy.
There is a bright future before him.
Sergeant Daily is the man to be promoted.
He is the best, most active and the most deserving Sergeant on the force.
You should never believe rumors.
The Colored American has at last concluded to stand square on a school trustee candidate.

WHERE ARE THE REPUBLICANS?

Recorder H. P. Cheatham, has appointed R. W. Thompson, the Indianapolis democrat, who was forced to take a ticket of leave man from the Government Printing Office. It is very strange that among all the colored republicans from Indiana, North Carolina or the District of Columbia, not one could be found to be appointed to the place to which R. W. Thompson was appointed. There are hundreds of colored republicans walking the streets of Washington who were dismissed from the public service when democrat negroes came to this city under the last democratic administration. The Bee doesn't object to a man being a democrat, but THE BEE does object to the appointment of such a negro democrat to office as R. W. Thompson, where there are so many more deserving colored republicans. Are there no republicans in Indianapolis? There seems to be no show for republicans even under republicans.

WHAT NEXT?

Since the return of President McKinley from the South, the ex confederates have taken another turn. A lecturer in the city of Richmond, Va., in speaking or rather where he attempted to speak of the valor of the colored soldiers at Santiago, he was hissed and not allowed to proceed. We should like to know what the next move will be to suppress the negro or any honorable mention of him? It is only a question of time before this race question will have come to an issue.

TRIMMERS.

There are more negro trimmers among the negro race than any race in the world. That old slavery idea of telling or informing on each other, is still prevalent, not only among the ignorant negro, but you will find it among the so-called educated negro. The moment a negro goes into a department, he becomes imbued with the frivolities of official life. He begins to get a taste of "Uncle Sam's" hard cash then he forgets himself and loses all the manhood he ever had. He becomes a trimmer and apologist. The manhood that he was once possessed with has left him. He seeks new fields where the atmosphere is better suited to his breathing.

All negro cowards ought to die.

Register voters is making a successful register.

Judge Kimball, we understand, is a candidate for judgeship in the upper court.

Mr. C. Maurice Smith is one of the most learned attorneys before the District bar. He would make a worthy successor to Judge McComas.

The negro should divide.

If it is good for republicans to divide, the negro should also divide.

No race of people can succeed who toady.

THE LABOR FACTOR IN RACE TROUBLES.

[From The Literary Digest.]

Hostility to negro labor, which has resulted in denying membership to the colored men in leading labor organizations, cropped out again last month at the convention of railroad brotherhoods held in Norfolk, Va. Press reports of an address by Grand Master Frank P. Sargent, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, state that his utterances show "that one of the chief purposes of the meeting of the brotherhoods was to begin a campaign in advocacy of white supremacy in the railway service." A despatch to the New-York Sun continues:

"Mr. Sargent said that no violation of law was intended and no threats were meant, but that the white men of the South believed that the avenue to the locomotive should be open to whites alone, and these claimed the right to man the engines upon the highways of Southern commerce. He said that the railway firemen who received in some parts of the South $30 a month, when they asked for higher wages, had been told that colored men could be secured who would work for $25. The speaker said that if this state of things continued more matters would be heard now in the Carolinas. He said that the South needed a civilization of intelligent workmen under the flag which has now crossed the sea. Other meetings would be held, he said, and agitation continued until the purpose of the firemen was accomplished."

Certain journals in the South have discussed for some time the phases of a negro invasion of the North. We find an interesting comment upon this alleged invasion by The Textile Record of Philadelphia, which says, under the caption, "Cheap Labor."

"It is remarked by a journal in New Orleans, that 'the invasion of the North by negro labor has begun. It has been triumphant, and it will go on. The negroes can underwork the whites because they are willing to live in a way no self-respecting white man would. Northern employers will use the cheapest labor they can get, and the negroes, as soon as they find a field open for them there, will go forward to occupy it.'"

"We are confident that this represents in a large measure, what may be called 'loose talk.' We assert that no indications appear of any such invasion upon a formidable scale. We assert, also, that nobody in the North is considering any extended movement of black laborers from the South to the North. But there is an aspect of the labor question which is exciting some uneasiness among thoughtful men. As prices continue to press further downward, the margin of profit for many manufacturers and other wealth-producers become narrower and narrower. These men, with all their resources invested in productive industry, are often at their wits' end to make economies in the direction of their business which will permit them to avoid loss or to pick up a few scant crumbs of profit. When such a necessity or such an impulse drives, the time must come sooner or later when the employed man will be asked to accept a smaller return for his labor. Nobody can be blamed for this. The employer can not go on choosing his fits. He will soon reach the limit of economy in machine production, in saving of waste, in purchases of material; and when that limit is attained, the turn of the workingmen will come, or else there there will be complete suspension of operations. Wages in many industries are already falling, and they will fall further, and in still other lines of business, unless means shall be discovered to put a stop to the shrinkage of values, and the consequent disappearance of profits from which the nation has so long suffered. It is improbable that the North will be flooded with low-priced negro-labor from the South, but it is more than probable, it is certain, that the white working men in the Northern States have before them the dismal promise of less compensation for their toil and the necessity that they shall live less comfortably."

Horn, The Tailor.

If you desire a first class suit made, the man to go to is Horn, the tailor, 537 F street, northwest. During the month of December, he turned out some of the finest price, albert and cutaway coats that any one would feel proud to wear. For fine stock of goods Mr Horn cannot be surpassed. It is wonderful to see his imported goods made up into suits, 50 per cent cheaper than any other house in the city. Beyond all doubt he has the best cutters of any house in the city. His goods are just what he represents them to be. No sham, but the genuine articles. Have you ever been to his place of business? Have you ever examined his goods? If you have, then you know THE BEE is saying what is true. He needs no recommendation. His goods speak for themselves. If you are not satisfied Mr. Horn will refund your money. You will not find another house in the city that will give you the inducements that Mr. Horn will for your money. He doesn't set one price on his goods and charge you another. He is not that kind of a man. Every gentleman should have, at least one dress suit. Horn the tailor, is the place to get it, 637 F street, n. w.

NEWSPAPER WOMAN'S WORK.

IT IS REMUNERATIVE AND RARELY MONOTONOUS IN LARGE CITIES.

"In addition to her news work the woman reporter probably does 'specials' for the Sunday edition," writes Elizabeth G. Jordan of "What it Means to be a newspaper woman," in the January Ladies Home Journal. "There is no reason why her income should not be thirty-five or forty dollars a week at the end of the second year. After she has worked in New York five years she should be earning at least fifty dollars a week. If she does she is prone to take an apartment in a hotel and spend most of it for living expenses."

"As to the brighter side of the picture it may be said that the reporter is in constant touch with interesting phases of life. However hard her work may be, it is rarely monotonous. Each day brings her into contact with different persons and with varying conditions."

She meets the brightest men and women of this and other countries and makes friends of many of them. She has an unrivaled opportunity for the study of men, women and human nature. She is using her brains and making a name for herself among her associates. She has opportunities to do much good in a quiet way. If she has ideals (and as a rule she has) it is no harder to live up to them in her profession than in others. Of the so-called 'perquisites' of the profession—passes and gifts—the less said the better. The best type of newspaper woman never accepts these."

EAFN ESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MUSICAL NOTES.

As was predicted in last week's issue a good musical program was sung on Christmas by the choirs of the various churches throughout the city. Some of the churches employed extra vocal and instrumental talent.

Prof. R. S. Parrott of Mt. Zion M. E. Church, Georgetown, has received splendid inducements from officials in Baltimore for the production there of the Comic Opera "Pirates of Penzance," which was so successfully rendered here recently.

The recent appearance here of the U. S. 10th regular cavalry gave Washingtonians their first opportunity of hearing one of Uncle Sam's colored bands. The performance of the band compared with that of the regular army that have been seen and heard here. The 10th cavalry band deserves great praise indeed for their splendid playing.

The boy choir of St. Mary's P. E. Chapel is developing into a good singing body. Rev. O. L. Mitchell has the services of Choir-master H. H. Freeman of St. John's Parish to train the young boys.

Mr. Winston Payne, the tenor, and Miss Helen Adams, soprano, both were in good voice at Asbury M. E. Church last Sunday.

The Amphion Glee Club have arranged for a complimentary banquet to be held at Delmo Koonce on the evening of January 11th 1899.

Mr. John Lemos, organist at Berean Baptist church, played a very interesting program last Sunday.

For continuous service Mr. W. T. Benjamin, baritone soloist of St. Augustine Church, beats all local records.

Mr. William Smith, one of our best instrumentalists, has quite a number of pupils. Mr. Smith in well versed in harmony.

Martin L. Vandye is the leading Afro-American musician of Newark, N. J., he has a splendid orchestra. Mr. Vandye is ably assisted by Mr. Henry Vanderveer, cornetist, of Elizabeth, N. J. and Mr. Samuel Knight the celebrated pianist of New York City.

There was an excellent musical program at the 2nd Baptist Church last Sunday evening. The occasion was a special song service under the direction of Prof. Robert W. Thompkins, leading the choir. His young choir has made great progress under his supervision since he has had it in charge. The choruses, quartets, etc. were good. Prof. Joseph H. Douglas performed on the violin. Prof. Thompkins deserves credit.

Christmas week has passed and not a breath of scandal. Aint it so?

The Southern Hotel, presided over by "Mein Host" Col. Jack Ryan, seems to be the mecca for the Georgia travelers.

Mr. T. Thomas fortune is in the city shopping at the Southern.

Miss Mattie R. Bowen, President of the Sojourner Truth's Home for working girls, will address the Congressional Lyceum Odd Fellows Hall 1606 17th street, northwest tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The E. Worth League Choir of Ebenezer M. E. Church, Mr. Daniel Jenkins, director, has accepted an invitation to be present and render several musical selections.

There is an old English saying, "You man treat a Miss," "but never miss a treat," and you certainly will miss a treat if you miss seeing Sam Devere's Own Company that comes to the Lyceum Theatre next week commencing Monday matinee Jan. 2nd.

Sam Devere has together this year one of the best vaudeville organizations traveling; besides Devere, who has all new songs and sayings, there may be mentioned, the Great American Song Book with all new wags, the International Musical Comiques O'Brien and Buckley, in a cyclone of the beautiful barefoot Passion Dancer, Mildred Howard Degrey, whose dances at the Herald Sq. Theatre New York, created such a sensation; then there is the great impersonator of Hebrew characters, Herbert Ashley who has been a "tre," and success everywhere. Another act that is sure to be royally received is that of Barnes and Sisson, the clever travesty sketch artists and sweet singers. The Fanchonetti Sisters, who are three of the prettiest and greatest contortion dancers before the public; next is the funny comedy duo, Cockley & Husted and their wonderful performing dog "Trixie."

As a fitting climax to this big show, Mr. Devere has written a very funny comedy entitled "The Peep O'Day Club" which will introduce Ed. Kentz as the eccentric waiter and the entire company.

Miss Birdie Johnson and sisters gave a beautiful Christmas party on Monday evening December 26th at their residence 1214, 16th street northwest. They were assisted by Miss Susie Radcliffe. There was dancing and any amount of games of amusement.

Music was furnished by Mr. Guss Murphy and company. At 5 o'clock refreshments of every description were served. Miss Johnson are very entertaining young ladies.

LIST OF IMPORTANT ITEMS IN ASTRONOMICAL PROGRESS.

[From Signs of the Times.]

The first eclipse recorded occurred at Babylon, March 19, 721 B. C. It was of the moon, and was recorded by Ptolemy. A tablet found at Nineveh is thought to contain a record of a solar eclipse which occurred June 15, 763 B. C.

The earliest-known works on astronomy were prepared by Aristotle about 350 B. C.

The mean motion of the sun and moon was determined by Hipparchus (who also discovered the precession of the equinoxes), 160-125 B. C.

The places and distances of the planets were discovered by Ptolemy, 139-161 A. D.

Astronomy was cultivated by the Arabs about 760 A. D., and introduced into Europe.

The principle of the telescope was described by Roger Bacon in 1250, and in 1537 Leonard Digges arranged lenses so that he could see very distant objects. In 1608 telescopes were constructed by Lipperhey and Jensen. A description of these enabled Galileo, in the following year, to construct an improved instrument, with which, in 1610, he discovered Jupiter's satellites. Kepler's laws of planetary motion were announced in 1609 and 1618.

In 1654 Huyghens discovered Saturn's rings. In 1655 Huyghens discovered Titan, the largest of Saturn's satellites. Four more of Saturn's satellites were discovered by Cassius from 1671 to 1684. Wm. Herschel discovered two in 1781; and Bond, the last, in 1848.

The reflecting telescope was invented by Gregory in 1663.

The first charts of the moon were constructed in 1670.

In 1675 Romer discovered the velocity of light by the observation of Jupiter's satellites.

Newton's system was taught and demonstrated in 1687.

In 1705 Halley made the first successful prediction of the return of a certain comet. (This comet, known as Halley's, will return again in 1910.)

Uranus was discovered in 1781, and two of his satellites, in 1787, by Herschel; the other two, by Lassell and Struve in 1847.

Neptune was found by Dr. Galle, of Berlin, on September 23, 1846, who had been told by Leverier where the planet would be found. In the following month its satellite was discovered by Mr. Lassell.

The art of producing pictures by the action of sunlight upon a sensitized plate (now so extensively used in connection with astronomical work) was discovered by Wedgwood and Davy, of London, in 1802. M. Daguerre improved upon their work, and in 1839 produced Daguerretype plates. The first photograph of the moon was made by Draper, of New York City, in 1840, but it was not till 1850 and 1851 that good work in this line began to appear. The first picture of the sun was taken in 1845 but successful views of the corona were not secured until 1870. The first photograph of a star was taken in 1830; of a nebula, in 1880; and of a comet, in 1881.

Spectrum analysis was applied to astronomy in 1861.

In 1877 the two satellites of Mars were discovered by Hall, of Washington.

The great Lick Observatory was completed in 1888, and the Yerkes Observatory in 1897.

In 1892 the fifth moon of Jupiter was discovered by Prof. E. E. Barnard, at the Lick Observatory.

In 1895 Prof. James E. Keeler demonstrated that the rings of Saturn consist of countless satellites revolving about the same or parallel planes, those at the inner edge moving faster than those at the outer edge. During the same year Prof. Barnard discovered a vast nebula in the constellation of Scorpio.

ADVANTAGE

BAILEY'S
IMPROVED TRUSS.

It adjusts itself so perfectly to the rupture that it is impossible for it to become displaced.
It permits the utmost freedom of motion with perfect safety.
All uncomfortable and injurious steel spring pressure is avoided.
The pad is held in place by woven bands, which retain an equal pressure in all positions of the body.
It can be worn in bed, a great disad-vantage to the young as tending to a perfect cure.

It is the only suitable truss for children and females.
The proper amount of pressure can be brought to bear and maintained in any position without pinching or harm to the wearer.

It will cure hernia if placed on the patient sufficiently early.
Excepting umbilical, it is the best truss ever offered for all kinds of hernia.

It is so perfect and comfortable in its adjustment that the patient in a short time forgets he is wearing it.
(See the certificate of Mr. Daniel Johnson.)

Sent postage paid to any address on receipt of price: $3 for single and $4 for double truss.

In ordering, give location of hernia, right or left side, and measurement.
Satisfaction given or money refunded when the truss is returned in good order. Address:

POINTERS

ON THE SIDE

Delia:—Positions make some people, but not so well, that you can't tell that they are not used to something.

Essie:—You are admired for your simplicity in dress and sweet disposition.

S. C.:—A butterfly has a short life, such is the case with a fickle mind or coquettish man or woman.

There is a certain lady in the schools who is not herself, since she has been made principal. Guess who she is. Send answers to this office.

F. F.:—It is only the knave or coward who will say what he likes to say through others. A person who is woman enough to make charges ought to have courage enough to stand to them.

Mollie:—Never suspicion a person without a cause. Heavy hangs the curtain over the guilty one's head. Evil thoughts, enter evil minds.

Ida:—I am glad you are convinced that you were entertaining the wrong young woman. Never suspicion a person, because others do.

Sadie:—No young girl or single lady should take a married woman as her bosom friend. When one gets married, it is time enough to seek married people's company.

Lizzie:—It is not necessary to confine yourself to a man, although you may be engaged to him. No man has a right to dictate to a lady what she shouldn't or should do.

Mazie:—Your case is not a peculiar one. I believe in an independent girl. Let not a man see that you are anxious for his company, if so he is apt to slight you.

A. S.:—You talk too much: a teacher should be a model in looks as well as in words. You should cultivate your manner of speech.

Laura:—Your looks are irreproachable. Be yourself and allow people to call you sensible.

J. B.:—Some people find it very convenient to act selfish. No one can live without friends.

New Year receptions are growing old and out of date. Informal receptions are in better taste and less expensive.

A dressing sack makes a charming present to any young lady.

A smoking jacket is an appropriate gift to a young man.

Young ladies should not buy cigars as a present for a gentleman. Men should not be encouraged in burning money. Smoking is a bad habit and a great waste of money.

Lilly:—Feather boas are not as much worn as they were last winter. Furs take the lead in neck wear.

Merry Xmas and happy New Year to all.

Be mindful of others. Heavy is the heart that is all for itself.

Selfishness never was known to make friends.

E. M.:—Cocoa butter is an excellent remedy for the skin. I don't know of anything that will make you three times lighter without injuring the skin.

To make the skin firm and remove black-heads, wash in water as warm as bearable, then rinse in lukewarm water and then bathe the face in ice cold water.

Hallie:—Good singers don't sing every time they are asked, neither are they always humming.

Never make a present with the intention of receiving one in return.

Hattie:—Never suspicion one of wrong doing. It is as much as you can do to attend to your own business.

T. M.:—Never write so that a third party cannot read what you say.

S. T.:—It is well some times to have a confident. It is always well to tell so much and no more.

Tillie:—Never accept valuable gifts if you are not engaged.

R. T.:—Never dress flashy it will not become a refined young lady.

B. L. C.:—You should always take your mamma's advice. Kindness toward your little brother will naturally make you kind when you become a woman.

E. T.:—Some people are more inclined to gossip than others.

T. O.:—Select your society. Never associate with the vulgar.

R. O. M.:—A good girl will make a good woman. A person may appear smart without being smart.

T. T.:—You should study the art of fashion. Your clothes should be made to fit you.

N. O.:—You should be careful with whom you associate. All is lost when you lose your reputation.

Oliver:—Make your letters plain and distinct.

THE MOST NEGLECTED HOMES.
THOSE OF THE WOMEN WHO DEMAND AN EXPANSION FOR THEIR SEX.

"It is an indisputable fact that there are scores of American women to-day connected with charitable, club or organization work for which they have no actual taste and only a force interest," writes Edward Bok in the January Ladies' Home Journal. "But the insufficiency of the home as a place for women to develop their fullest talents has been so incessantly talked about that these women have felt that, to be in touch with progressive ideas, they must take on some outside work, even at the cost of leaving something undone in the home machinery. Some women do not stop to discern an incontestable fact: that those of their sex who are forever crying about the narrowness of the home for women are those who have either never had homes of their own or are unhappy in the homes which they have. No happy wife nor true mother ever has a word to say in complaint of the narrowness of her home or its insufficiency for her highest development. She knows all too well that a home is never narrow: that it can be made as broad as a woman wills it. Where a home is narrow, depend upon it there is always something wrong: something is amiss. The most barren homes in this country generally belong to one class of women: those who, on the platform and with pen, are always hysterically and frantically demanding an expansion of woman's opportunities. It is a very fortunate thing for some of these exclaimers that those whom they address cannot look into their homes and see the true reason for their restlessness and dissatisfaction. If they could their platform careers would soon come to an end."
